CUBANS IN WASHINGTON

New York, April 25.—The exact nature of the propositions to be submitted by the Cuban commissioners is not known, says a Tribune special from Washington. "They have held a rather long executive session at their headquarters in the Shoreham, the object of which, it was announced, was to decide on a plan of procedure, but if they reached a conclusion they did not say so. That the commissioners with practically one voice will lodge with the President some kind of complaint against Governor General Wood, there is scarcely any room for doubt. Nor is there any room for doubt that they will in any way weaken the President's confidence in that official.
